

Avviso di sicurezza URGENTE

Istruzioni d'uso dei ventilatori Trilogy Evo e Trilogy Evo O₂

Gennaio 2024

Il presente documento contiene informazioni importanti per continuare a utilizzare la strumentazione in modo sicuro e corretto.

La invitiamo a leggere con attenzione le informazioni riportate di seguito e a divulgarne i contenuti a tutto il personale operativo di reparto. È fondamentale comprendere le implicazioni di questa comunicazione.

Gentile Cliente,

Durante una revisione interna dei manuali delle Istruzioni per l'uso (IFU) dei ventilatori Trilogy Evo e Trilogy Evo O₂, Philips Respironics ha constatato l'incompletezza della sezione relativa alle controindicazioni. Il presente Avviso di sicurezza URGENTE ha lo scopo di informarLa in merito a tutte le controindicazioni relative ai dispositivi. Tenere presente che i dispositivi possono continuare a essere utilizzati in sicurezza conformemente alle misure di mitigazione descritte in questo documento. Non sono stati segnalati problemi di sicurezza sul campo in relazione a questo problema.

- Le seguenti controindicazioni si riferiscono ai ventilatori Trilogy Evo e Trilogy Evo O₂:

Istruzioni d'uso - Controindicazioni

Se il paziente presenta una delle seguenti condizioni, consultare il medico di riferimento prima di avviare la ventilazione non invasiva:

- Impossibilità di mantenere la pervietà delle vie respiratorie o di eliminare adeguatamente le secrezioni
- Rischio di aspirazione del contenuto gastrico
- Sinusite acuta od otite media
- Epistassi, con conseguente aspirazione polmonare del sangue
- Ipotensione

La modalità terapeutica AVAPS-AE è controindicata per l'uso invasivo e per i pazienti di peso inferiore a 10 kg.

La funzione AVAPS è controindicata per i pazienti di peso inferiore a 10 kg.

Le controindicazioni sopra elencate in grassetto sono omesse o elencate in altri punti delle Istruzioni d'uso e del Manuale clinico. Queste sono state aggiunte all'appendice del manuale allegata per l'inserimento nei manuali attualmente in uso.

- Pericoli/danni associati a questo problema:

Potenziati pericoli identificati in relazione all'uso dei ventilatori Trilogy Evo e Trilogy Evo O₂ su pazienti che presentano controindicazioni:

1. Barotrauma
2. Ipoventilazione/ipercapnia
3. Rirespirazione di CO₂ in eccesso

Questi pericoli possono verificarsi:

1. Se pazienti con un peso compreso tra 2,5 kg e 10 kg vengono sottoposti a trattamento con il dispositivo utilizzando la funzione AVAPS.

2. Se pazienti con un peso compreso tra 2,5 kg e 10 kg vengono sottoposti a trattamento con il dispositivo impostato in modalità terapeutica AVAPS-AE.
3. Se il dispositivo viene utilizzato in modo invasivo con impostazione della modalità terapeutica AVAPS-AE per tutti i pazienti (inclusi quelli di peso inferiore a 10 kg).

- Prodotti interessati e come identificarli:

Gli errori riscontrati riguardano le istruzioni per l'uso dei ventilatori Trilogy Evo e Trilogy Evo O₂.

I ventilatori Trilogy Evo e Trilogy Evo O₂ forniscono una ventilazione a pressione positiva continua o intermittente per il trattamento di persone che necessitano di ventilazione meccanica. I ventilatori Trilogy Evo e Trilogy Evo O₂ sono destinati all'uso su pazienti adulti e pediatrici con un peso minimo di 2,5 kg. Il ventilatore è adatto per l'uso in ambienti istituzionali e domestici e per il trasporto non emergenziale, ad esempio sedie a rotelle o veicoli personali. Può essere utilizzato per la ventilazione sia invasiva che non-invasiva.

- Misure necessarie da adottare da parte del cliente/dell'utente per prevenire eventuali rischi per i pazienti:

1. Conservare una copia della presente lettera e dell'appendice allegata insieme alle istruzioni per l'uso dei ventilatori Trilogy Evo o Trilogy Evo O₂.
2. Quando si utilizzano i dispositivi Trilogy Evo o Trilogy Evo O₂, fare riferimento alle seguenti controindicazioni:

Istruzioni d'uso - Controindicazioni

Se il paziente presenta una delle seguenti condizioni, consultare il medico di riferimento prima di avviare la ventilazione non invasiva:

- Impossibilità di mantenere la pervietà delle vie respiratorie o di eliminare adeguatamente le secrezioni
- Rischio di aspirazione del contenuto gastrico
- Sinusite acuta od otite media
- Epistassi, con conseguente aspirazione polmonare del sangue
- Ipotensione

La modalità terapeutica AVAPS-AE è controindicata per l'uso invasivo e per i pazienti di peso inferiore a 10 kg.

La funzione AVAPS è controindicata per i pazienti di peso inferiore a 10 kg.

3. Inoltare il presente avviso di sicurezza per i clienti a tutte le persone interessate all'interno della Sua azienda o di qualsiasi azienda cui possano essere stati ceduti i dispositivi potenzialmente interessati.

DISTRIBUTORI: dal momento che Philips Respironics commercializza questi prodotti attraverso la propria rete di distributori, tra i quali figura la Sua azienda, potrebbe non disporre dei dati necessari per contattare tutti gli utilizzatori. Pertanto, La invitiamo a inviare una copia dell'Avviso di sicurezza allegato a tutti i clienti ai quali ha venduto uno dei dispositivi interessati.

4. Compili il Modulo di risposta all'Avviso di sicurezza fornito con questa lettera e lo restituisca all'ufficio vendite Philips Respironics di zona. Il presente modulo funge da conferma ufficiale che Lei ha completato gli obblighi di adempimento del presente Avviso di sicurezza.

- Misure programmate da Philips per risolvere il problema:

Philips Respironics sta correggendo le istruzioni per l'uso relative ai ventilatori Trilogy Evo e Trilogy Evo O₂ cui si fa riferimento in questa lettera. In allegato alla presente lettera viene fornita un'appendice al manuale attualmente in uso.

Qualora abbia bisogno di ulteriori informazioni o di assistenza in merito a questo problema, non esiti a contattare l'ufficio vendite Philips di zona: +41 62 745 17 50

La presente comunicazione è stata inoltrata agli enti competenti. Reazioni avverse o problemi di qualità registrati con l'uso di questo prodotto possono essere notificati al MedWatch Adverse Event Reporting Program dell'FDA online, per posta ordinaria o per fax.

Philips si scusa per gli eventuali inconvenienti causati da questo problema.

Distinti saluti,
